WHY DID SHE RUN AWAY?

Yesterday Rover came to the Zoo to visit his friends. Suddenly¹ he saw a new animal. It was yellow, brown and black. It had a little head, long legs, a long tail and a very, very long neck!

Rover came up to the animal and said:

“Hello, ... Excuse me, I don't know your name.”

“That's all right. My name is Blaze.”

“Who are you? I didn't see you here last month.”

“I'm a giraffe. I lived in Africa. But now I live here, at the Zoo. I like it here. Children and their parents often come to see me. They always bring me a lot of things to eat: fruit and vegetables, sweets and cookies and many other tasty things.”

“Do you eat birds or animals?”

“Oh, no, I don't. Why are you looking at my neck? You don't like it, do you?”

“Well, I do! But why is it so long?”

“Because¹ I eat leaves from the trees. My long neck helps me do it.”

“Oh, I see.”

“I like to eat grass, too. You know, one day a woman came to look at me. I saw nice green grass on her hat.² I thought she wanted to give it to me to eat.

“Of course I thanked her and ate some grass. I didn't like it! It wasn't tasty at all! And do you know what the woman did? She ran away! I don't know why! Can you tell me why she ran away?”
